

POPE INTRODUCES MICRO WAVE RADIO
TELEPHONE SERVICE BETWEEN VATICAN CITY AND CASTEL GANDOLFO PALACE---FIRST IN THE WORLD.

The first regular micro wave radio telephone service in the world, between the Vatican City and Castel Gandolfo, the Pope's summer residence, was inaugurated by the Pope, in the presence of Senators Marconi, who made the presentation of the apparatus and installation to the Pope.
The ceremony was broadcast.
